

Subject: Urgent Notice: Account Suspension Due to Unusual Login Activity

From: security-alert@account-support-center.com

To: user@email.com

Dear User,

We are writing to inform you that our security system has detected unusual login activity associated with your account. As part of our commitment to protecting user data, your account access has been temporarily restricted until further verification is completed.

The activity detected includes login attempts from an unfamiliar location and device. For your protection, certain features of your account have been limited to prevent unauthorized use.

To restore full access, you are required to complete a verification process within 24 hours. Failure to complete this process may result in permanent account suspension, and you may lose access to important services linked to your account.

Please verify your account immediately by clicking the secure link below:

<http://secure-verification.account-login-support.com/verify>

Once verification is complete, your account will be automatically reviewed and restored if no further risks are detected.

For security purposes, please ensure that you complete this process as soon as possible. This verification step is mandatory and cannot be postponed. If we do not receive confirmation within the stated time frame, the system will proceed with account termination.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Security Support Team
